

Where every child is valued

NEWSLETTER

Tuesday 8th March 2022

Dear Parents/Carers,

We had a wonderful World Book Day on Thursday with the children participating in drama, assemblies, fashion parades, writing and stories.

Great costumes.

Good fun!!!!

Everyone clapped and joined in.

Best Wishes. Ms Murdoch

Road safety.

Our lovely ladies who patrol the crossings have asked again that children and parents follow safe crossing rules. This means not running over the crossing or using a mobile phone while crossing. Thank you for remembering his rule to stay safe on our busy roads outside school.

School Office reminders

If you haven't already done so please sign up to Parent Pay .

Please update any changes to phone numbers, addresses or who has permission to collect your child.

Any forms handed in please ensure your name, child's name and class is clearly noted on it.

Thank you all.

Staff returning from maternity

We have welcomed Ms Begum back and she has been working with children in EYFS and key stage 1 on Wednesdays at the moment.

Ms Kenneth is returning before the Easter holidays and will be working with different classes across the school through the weeks.

Ms Sitch will be returning before the Easter holidays and will be working in key stage 2 on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.

It is lovely to have them return and to be able to provide additional interventions and support across all the classes.
